*Congratulations
Mr. Clyde Green!*

A Message from Your President

"As President, I am elated to finally have a Vice President that I'm certain will be a valuable asset to this great Association as he has already begun to show his true commitment to the cause through his activeness with the works of the association."

A Message from Your New Vice President

"I greet each of you, Civil Servants, throughout these Turks and Caicos Islands. I am humbled to have the opportunity to serve you alongside all the hard-working members of our association. The great work of the association has begun but there remains much still to do to ensure that each of us enjoys a working environment that promotes productivity and affords all of us the greatest possible chance to excel while, providing excellent service to the people and guests of the Turks and Caicos Islands. I pledge my commitment to this noble cause and my support of the President and his vision."
